since 1883

Iwaki was established in Kyobashi, Tokyo in 1883. Iwaki's special heat-resistant glasswares are loved by people all around the world. The fusion of design and function was made a reality because of our high technical capability. There is the Iwaki spirit we put into making each of our products.

Our heat-resistant glass can be used in microwave oven, and also for cooking in oven and oven toaster.*
User friendly even for the novice cook and cleanup is a breeze.
Whether its for cold, hot or storing and preserving, you will richly enjoy the various options you can choose from.
Enjoy in different settings from tea time to creating a full meal.

* Products are for oven use only.
